

Hayashiya Imamaru

Japanese Paper-cutting Art "Kami-Kiri" Performance

RICHCRAFT HALL THEATRE 2200,
CARLETON UNIVERSITY

MONDAY, OCTOBER 16, 6:30 PM

Free admission, no reservation required.

© Destiny Planning

“Kami-Kiri” is the freehand cutting of silhouettes from paper, using skills developed in Japan over 300 years ago. Mr. Hayashiya has more than 50 years of experience and has traveled to many countries, surprising people of all ages with his kami-kiri designs and lively wit. You will be amazed to watch his speeding scissors creating beautiful portraits and audience requests in the blink of an eye.