Course Description. Introduction to Anthropology ANTH 1002 [0.5 credit]

Introduction to Issues in Anthropology
Examination of anthropological issues in the study of social institutions such as the family, economy, politics and belief systems. Debates about gender, development, cultural differences, health and the environment may also be examined.
Precludes additional credit for ANTH 1000 (no longer offered) and Anth 1003.
Lectures/discussions three hours a week.

This course is intended to familiarize students with the field of cultural anthropology in particular, and the four fields of anthropology in general. It aims to provide a broad understanding of the development of cultural anthropology, its history, practices, theorists and theories, as well as their continuing relevance. In addition, skills in writing, research and interpretation will be strongly emphasized. A critical approach to the conventions of anthropology will be maintained throughout. The major themes of the course will revolve around cultural anthropology, the evolution of social systems, technology, and culture.

Course Requirements and Assignments

There is one mid-term examination on Feb. 11th, 2019. This will be 1.5 hours in duration and will be primarily in short answer format. The aim is to familiarise you with the exam process and the type of material covered.

There is one term paper (see below), due by 6:05 PM on Mar. 18th, 2019. The Term Paper must be 6-7 pages in length (this does not include your bibliography) - DOUBLE-SPACED in ‘NORMAL’ 12 PT FONT. A required reading called ‘Essay assignment’ with bibliographic requirements and a list of suggested topics will be posted on the course web-site.
The Final Assignment will be a take-home exam that will be handed out on the last day of class - April 8th 2019. It will be due during the official exam period (TBA), and is to be handed in to the Sociology and Anthropology drop box in B750 Loeb. Details will be provided early in the semester.

Tutorials

Students are assigned a tutorial group when they register in this course, and are responsible for attending the tutorial sessions. Tutorials are held weekly, beginning on Monday Jan. 14. 2019. Following are the group schedules: B01: Southam Hall 413. B02: Mackenzie Building 4332. B03: Southam Hall 403. B04: Mackenzie Building 4494. B05: Southam Hall 306. B06: Southam Hall 520. See Carleton Central for a list of groups and associated times and classrooms.

Participation and attendance count for 15% of your course mark. Tutorials are held to review readings and lecture material, provide further explanation of, and assistance with, the term’s written assignment, and provide an opportunity for review in preparation for the mid-term and final examinations. Tutorial groups and locations will be announced at the start of term, and posted on CU Learn.

Submission of assignments

All assignments, except the exams, are due at the start of the class on the due date. Before this date, assignments can be handed in to the instructor during office hours, or at the departmental office drop box. Under no circumstances should assignments be slipped under office doors. Students must retain a hard copy of all assignments. Emailed essays are NOT accepted. Late assignments will be deducted 3% per day (this includes weekends). Late assignments will only be accepted without penalty if the student has made a prior arrangement with the instructor or is able to provide a medical certificate or other suitable documentation that states the DURATION of the illness/issue. Without documentation, no assignment will be accepted two weeks past the deadline. If you fail to submit a take-home examination by the due date, you must apply for a deferral as per the University Regulations in Section 2.4, 2.5 and 2.5.1 of the Undergraduate Calendar.

Written Assignment (term paper)

As well as the instructions below, there is a Mandatory file posted on the course web-site that addresses the essay in greater detail. Students are required to have read this file.

1) The Final Date for the Submission of Term Papers without Penalty is March 18th 2019 by 6:05 PM. Topics should be chosen in consultation with the instructor or from a list of topics to be distributed.

2) Bibliography: the internet is not a sufficient academic resource for your bibliography, but certain sites Sept. complement your text-based research. Your bibliography should contain 3 or 4 books, and 2 or 3 scholarly journal articles, at a minimum.
3) All term papers must conform to the Departmental Style Guide in format. The Guide can be found on the Departmental Web-site. Additional help with essays is available from the Writing Tutorial Service on the 4th floor of the library.

4) Please staple essays at the upper left-hand corner. DO NOT USE ANY COVERS. If you do, you will be required to remove them before submission.

5) NUMBER YOUR PAGES (the cover page is NOT page 1).

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar Regulations, the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

- A+ = 90-100
- B+ = 77-79
- C+ = 67-69
- D+ = 57-59

- A = 85-89
- B = 73-76
- C = 63-66
- D = 53-56

- A - = 80-84
- B - = 70-72
- C - = 60-62
- D - = 50-52

F = Below 50
WDN = Withdrawn from the course
DEF = Deferred (See above)

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university’s website, here: www.calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable).

The deadline for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for the Winter 2019 (April) exam period is March 15, 2019.

For Religious Obligations:
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Pregnancy:
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Survivors of Sexual Violence
As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton’s Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: www.carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities
Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. Plagiarism
Plagiarism is the passing off of someone else's work as your own and is a serious academic offence. For the details of what constitutes plagiarism, the potential penalties and the procedures refer to the section on Instructional Offences in the Undergraduate Calendar. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (See https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/). The Policy is strictly enforced and is binding on all students. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Students who infringe the Policy may be subject to one of several penalties.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism?
A student found to have plagiarized an assignment may be subject to one of several penalties including but not limited to: a grade of zero, a failure or a reduced grade for the piece of academic work; reduction of final grade in the course; completion of a remediation process; resubmission of academic work; withdrawal from course(s); suspension from a program of study; a letter of reprimand.

What are the Procedures?
All allegations of plagiarism are reported to the faculty of Dean of FASS and Management. Documentation is prepared by instructors and departmental chairs. The Dean writes to the student and the University Ombudsperson about the alleged plagiarism. The Dean reviews the allegation. If it is not resolved at this level then it is referred to a tribunal appointed by the Senate.
