Course Description and Objectives:
Seminar and discussion. An examination of selected issues and debates of ongoing concern to sociologists.

Required Text:

Detailed Reading List:
(Please read in the order listed)

5 September  Introduction, no required reading.

12 September  Some sociological agendas

19 and 26 September  The Agency-Structure Problem

3 October  Social Construction

10 October  New Forms of Capitalism and Power

17 October  Identity and Identification

24 October  READING WEEK

31 October  Some Feminist Issues: Standpoint and the Sex Trade

7 November  Cultural Appropriation
Read: Joel Rudinow, "Race, Ethnicity, Expressive Authenticity: Can White People Sing the Blues?" The Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism 52 (1994), 127-137. Erich Hatala Matthes, "Cultural Appropriation Without Cultural Essentialism? " Social Theory and Practice 42 (2016), 343-366. We will take the empirical example of the events and debate surrounding the cancellation, at Montreal’s 2018 Jazz Festival, of Robert Lepage’s play Slav, featuring Betty Bonifassi in the lead role. Inform yourself about the events and the debate by doing an internet search of relevant articles. Find Kattia Thony’s defense of her participation in the show. Watch some Bonifassi Youtube videos, at least her clip ‘No more Lawd’ and her clip of working with Willie West on slave songs.

14 November  Race/Racialization

21 November  Indigeneity
Gerald Taiaiake Alfred, "Colonialism and State Dependency," Journal de santé

28 November Open Session---Reading to be determined
We will decide which subject areas most demand our attention among the many we have not covered.

5 December Conclusion

Course Requirements & Methods of Evaluation:
Evaluation will be based on course participation (25%) and on a term paper (75% of final grade) on a topic that draws upon an issue raised in the course. Students will be responsible in turn for presenting a brief introduction to each week’s readings (10 minutes max.) intended to stimulate discussion. To satisfy the participation requirement, students must attend the seminar and must deliver in person and in hard copy three (3) written questions or reflections at the beginning of each meeting addressing what they consider to be interesting, controversial, or critically-vulnerable aspects of the week’s assigned readings. This written material might also take the form of a blog or written commentary. 25% of the course grade will be assigned to each participant’s demonstrated mastery of and engagement with course readings. The course paper should demonstrate a mastery of course readings and familiarity with seminar discussion. Topics must be chosen in consultation with the instructor. The paper should not be longer than 30 double-spaced, printed pages.
PAPER DUE DATE: Friday, 7 December 2018. Papers should be handed personally to the instructor or deposited in the Departmental drop slot.
NOTE: All written work may be the subject of a further oral examination by the instructor. Students should keep a clean printed copy of the original paper.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar Regulations, the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.
University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university’s website, here: http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable).

The deadline for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for the Fall 2018 (December) exam period is November 9, 2018. The deadline for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for the Winter 2019 (April) exam period is March 15, 2019.

For Religious Obligations:
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Pregnancy:
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Survivors of Sexual Violence
As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and is survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: www.carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities
Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is the passing off of someone else's work as your own and is a serious academic offence. For the details of what constitutes plagiarism, the potential penalties and the procedures refer to the section on Instructional Offences in the Undergraduate Calendar. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (See https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/). The Policy is strictly enforced and is binding on all students. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Students who infringe the Policy may be subject to one of several penalties.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism?
A student found to have plagiarized an assignment may be subject to one of several penalties including but not limited to: a grade of zero, a failure or a reduced grade for the piece of academic work; reduction of final grade in the course; completion of a remediation process; resubmission of academic work; withdrawal from course(s); suspension from a program of study; a letter of reprimand.

What are the Procedures?
All allegations of plagiarism are reported to the faculty of Dean of FASS and Management. Documentation is prepared by instructors and departmental chairs. The Dean writes to the student and the University Ombudsperson about the alleged plagiarism. The Dean reviews the allegation. If it is not resolved at this level then it is referred to a tribunal appointed by the Senate.

Plagiarism and cheating at the graduate level are viewed as being particularly serious and the sanctions imposed are accordingly severe.
