Join us and hear the tragic story of Soleiman Faqiri, through a short documentary screening and talk by his brother Yusuf.

Soleiman was a 30-year-old man with dreams to aspire to, goals to achieve, and a family that loved him. On December 15th, 2016, jail guards at the Central East Correctional Centre in Lindsay, Ontario, mercilessly took his soul. A man battling mental illness was refused medical care, placed in solitary confinement, then beaten to death. Join us for a screening of a 20-minute documentary by CBC's The Fifth Estate, followed by a discussion with Soleiman's older brother Yusuf, co-founder of the Justice For Soli Campaign, on the case and on the inhumane treatment of people with mental health issues in our jails.
