

Preparing Academic Job Applications

Interested in applying for academic jobs? In this workshop we focus on unpacking the components of academic applications (such as the cover letter, teaching philosophy, and research statement) and share tips and strategies for organizing your application package.

Thursday, October 10, 2019
11:30am – 1:30pm
Loeb D794

This workshop is part of the Graduate Transitions Workshop Series hosted by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. All graduate students, alumni and post-doctoral fellows are welcome!