

CARLETON UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

SOCI 2005A
Fall/Winter 2022-2023
Histories of Sociological Thought

Instructor: Azar Masoumi
Office Hours: Fridays, 11-noon
Email: azar.masoumi@carleton.ca

Course Schedule: Lectures on Fridays, 12:35-2:25; Tutorials on Fridays 2:35-3:25 or 3:35-4:25
Method of Delivery: In-person

Course Description: This course introduces various traditions in sociological thought, with an emphasis on theories that grapple with questions of social justice and in/equality. We will read primary texts and situate theories in their relevant social, political, historical and intellectual contexts.

Prerequisites: SOCI 1001 and SOCI 1002, or SOCI 1003 [1.0], or ANTH 1001, or ANTH 1002

Reading (s)/Textbook (s): all readings are available online via course Ares.

Course Requirements & Methods of Evaluation:

Weekly lecture responses	20%
Tutorial attendance and participation	20%
Fall case example	10%
Fall critical analysis paper	20%
Winter case example	10%
Winter critical analysis paper	20%