

ANTH3215/MUSI3108: Musics of the Middle East & North Africa
Winter 2024

Instructor: Dr. Carolyn Ramzy

Office Hours: By appointment

Email: Carolyn.Ramzy@carleton.ca

Course Schedule: W/11:35 - 2:25

Method of Delivery: In-Person, One lecture per week (3 hours)

Course Description:

An examination of various musics, devotional traditions, and shifting cultural and art movements in the region, resulting from processes of globalization, political change, and technological innovation. Course sessions will include close and critical discussion of selected texts, audio-visual examples, and ethnomusicological documentary films.

Prerequisites: None

Reading (s)/Textbook (s): TBA

Course Requirements & Methods of Evaluation:

Class participation, critical playlist compilation, midterm, final exam