Class Times: Friday 8:35 - 10:25 AM
Dates: Sept. 8 - Dec. 8, 2023
Course Web Site: Student accounts on Brightspace
Teaching Assistants: TBA

Calendar Description: Introduction to the discipline of sociology; theory, methods, history; key thinkers, concepts, and disciplinary subfields in sociology; issues and problems in contemporary society. Emphasis on the everyday world of lived experience and social relations. Topics may include class, gender, sexuality, racialization, culture, social interaction. Precludes additional credit for SOCI 1003.

Course Objectives

The main objective of this course is to introduce students to the way in which sociologists analyze social processes. Attention will be paid to the development of the sociological field, its terms, theories, and theorists. We will discuss issues such as race, crime, social stratification, politics, culture, and other arenas of sociological research. Figures such as Marx, Durkheim, Weber, and others will be studied. The course will introduce the student to the constructs and theories that sociologists use to analyze social phenomena.

- To gain an understanding of the history of Sociology
- To become conversant in the terminology and theory of Sociology
- To gain a grasp of the rudiments of Sociological research

Responsibilities

The student will be responsible (in terms of examination) for all materials presented in lectures and for all required readings.

Course Requirements

Students are required to regularly attend lectures, to complete all of the required readings in advance of class, and to come to class prepared to participate in discussion. Each component of the evaluation structure must be completed.

Assignments

Assignment	Date	Weight (%)
Mid-Term	October 20 th	25%
Essay	November 17 th	40%
Final Examination	November 24 th - December 8 th	15%
Tutorial	Semester	20%

Tutorials

Students are assigned a tutorial group when they register in this course and are responsible for participating in the tutorial sessions. Tutorial sessions will be held weekly after class by your Teaching Assistant beginning on Friday, September 15th, 2023, and ending on Friday, December 1st, 2023. Note then, that there are no tutorials after the first lecture, the midterm, and the last lecture. Further details will be announced in the first week of classes.

The tutorials account for 20% of your course mark, which includes 5% for the Annotated Bibliography (Due Oct. 6th) and 15% for Participation (Note: the Participation structure is up to your TA but includes attendance and some written exercises). Tutorials are also held to review readings and lecture material, provide further explanation of, and assistance with, the term's assignments.

Required Readings

1. Sociology and Sociologists: an Introduction. (Ed. L.Kilmurray). Kendall Hunt Publishers. ISBN: 9798765757307.
Available at Carleton University Bookstore. Or as E-Book at <https://he.kendallhunt.com/product/sociology-sociologists-introduction>
2. Essay File posted on Brightspace.

All Recommended readings are posted on the course Brightspace webpage.

Some lectures may require readings from other sources. These will be primarily PDF files posted on the course website.

Recommended Readings

Several lectures have recommended readings. These are listed in the lecture schedule, and most are available through the course website.

Criteria for Assignments

The Mid-term examination will be held on October 20th, 2023.

The Essay assignment must be no more than 6-7 pages in length. Essays must be typed and double-spaced, in 12-point font, preferably Times Roman. You must include a title page that includes the title of your essay, student and course numbers, date, and the name of the professor. Your essay must include a bibliography. You may use the American Psychological Association Style (APA) for essay format. Staple your essays in the upper left corner, do not use plastic or any other type of cover. Detailed instructions on the essay are posted on the data file on Brightspace. No Emailed Essays are accepted. The Essay is due on November 17th, 2023. The Final Take-Home Assignment will be issued to you on November 24th and due at the beginning of lecture on Dec. 8th.

Instruction Method

The primary mode of instruction is the lecture format. PowerPoint displays will accompany most of the lectures. Some lectures will include documentary film presentations. Class discussion and questions are also an essential part of the course.

Extensions and Late Penalties

Assignment extensions are granted only in cases of genuine need (e.g., illness). A physician's letter will be required, stating the duration of the illness. Requests for extensions must be made prior to the deadline. 3% per day (weekends included) will be deducted from assignments handed in late without prior approval of the professor. No assignment will be accepted beyond two weeks past the deadline. Emailed essays are NOT accepted, and essays should never be left under the professor's office door, but either submitted in class, or through the departmental office. No Emailed Essays are accepted.

Absence

An absence from any examination or test, or late submission of assignments, due to illness, must be officially justified; otherwise, a penalty will be imposed. Reasons such as travel, employment and misreading the examination schedule are not accepted. Absence for any other serious reason must be justified in writing, to the academic assistants of the Faculty, within five business days following the date of the exam or submission of an assignment.

Email and Internet Resources

This course has a Brightspace webpage, containing email function, gradebook, lecture notes, and readings. Select notes will be posted after each week's lecture. These notes are not meant to be inclusive, but to aid the student in studying. Emails that ask questions of issues already addressed will not be answered.

Academic Fraud

Academic fraud is taken very seriously by the Faculty of Social Sciences and the University. It includes, for instance, plagiarism, cheating, submitting work that the student did not author, falsifying a reference, or submitting (without approval) work which has been produced for another course. All essays will be checked for the above instances of academic fraud.

Inclusiveness, Diversity, & Course Policies

Our class will be racially, religiously, politically, culturally, generationally, and economically diverse. We may be of different gender identifications and sexual orientations and our lived experiences and reactions to the course material will reflect this diversity. Sharing our perspectives and interpretations on the course material will enhance everyone's learning experience and you are encouraged to openly express any disagreements with the authors you will read, with your fellow classmates, or with the professor. However, you are expected to conduct yourself in such a way that shows the utmost respect to others who may - or may not - share your views. Derogatory comments and negative behavior towards others (and their views) will not be tolerated. It is also understood that in many cases the ethnographies, publications, and theories that the student will encounter are a product of specific historical and social contexts and therefore may contain sexist, androcentric, and even racist views. These issues will be considered and discussed as we explore the history of sociology.

Carleton University acknowledges the location of its campus on the traditional, unceded territories of the Algonquin nation. In doing so, Carleton acknowledges it has a responsibility to the Algonquin people and a responsibility to adhere to Algonquin cultural protocols.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar Regulations, the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
A - = 80-84	B - = 70-72	C - = 60-62	D - = 50-52
F = Below 50	WDN = Withdrawn from the course	DEF = Deferred

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university's website, here:

<https://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/>

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable).

*The deadline for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for December full fall and late fall examinations and fall/winter midterm examinations is November 15, 2023.

For Religious Obligations:

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Pregnancy:

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: www.carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the passing off of someone else's work as your own and is a serious academic offence. For the details of what constitutes plagiarism, the potential penalties and the procedures refer to the section on Instructional Offences in the Undergraduate Calendar. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (See <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>). The Policy is strictly enforced and is binding on all students. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Students who infringe the Policy may be subject to one of several penalties.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism?

A student found to have plagiarized an assignment may be subject to one of several penalties including but not limited to: a grade of zero, a failure or a reduced grade for the piece of academic work; reduction of final grade in the course; completion of a remediation process; resubmission of academic work; withdrawal from course(s); suspension from a program of study; a letter of reprimand.

What are the Procedures?

All allegations of plagiarism are reported to the faculty of Dean of FASS and Management. Documentation is prepared by instructors and departmental chairs. The Dean writes to the student and the University Ombudsperson about the alleged plagiarism. The Dean reviews the allegation. If it is not resolved at this level then it is referred to a tribunal appointed by the Senate.
