ANTH 1001 [0.5 credit]

Introduction to Socio-Cultural Anthropology

What does it mean to be human? Anthropologists have approached this question by using the ethnographic method to understand the diverse ways people create shared worlds of meaning. In this course students will learn how culture shapes experience, and how ethnography describes this process. Precludes additional credit for ANTH 1000 (no longer offered), HUMS 1005 (no longer offered). Lectures/discussions three hours a week.

Learning Objectives

- To gain an understanding of the history of anthropology
- To become conversant in the terminology and theory of anthropology
- To gain a grasp of the rudiments of ethnographic research

Instruction Method

The primary mode of instruction is the lecture format online via Zoom. PowerPoint displays will be accompanied by the professor lecturing. Some lectures may include documentary film presentations. Class discussion and questions are also an essential part of the course.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Mid-term

There is one mid-term examination held on May 27th, 2024. This will be 2 hours in duration. The aim is to familiarise you with the exam process and the type of material covered. Details to follow before this date.

Ethnographic Research - Essay

Students may conduct a detailed (but short) ethnographic project, details of which are posted on the course website. Alternatively, a research essay on any topic chosen from the course essay list file may be undertaken. Five - six pages of text, along with a bibliography, will be the requirement for either of these assignments. The due date for the Ethnography - Essay assignment is June 5th, 2024. Detailed instructions will be provided at the beginning of the semester.

Final Assignment

The Final Assignment will be posted on the course website on June 17th and is due on June 27th, 2024. Details will be provided early in the semester.

Course Assignments

Assignment	Date	Weight (%)
Participation	Semester	10%
Mid-term	May 27 th	25%
Ethnography - Essay	June 5 th	40%
Final Take-Home Exam	June-17 th - June 27 th	25%

Late assignments will only be accepted without penalty if the student has made a prior arrangement with the instructor. Without documentation, no assignment will be accepted two weeks past the deadline.

Inclusiveness, Diversity, & Course Policies

Our class will be racially, religiously, politically, culturally, generationally, and economically diverse. We may be of different gender identifications and sexual orientations and our lived experiences and reactions to the course material will reflect this diversity. Sharing our perspectives and interpretations on the course material will enhance everyone's learning experience and you are encouraged to openly express any disagreements with the authors you will read, with your fellow classmates, or with the professor. However, you are expected to conduct yourself in such a way that shows the utmost respect to others who may - or may not - share your views. Derogatory comments and negative behaviour towards others (and their views) will not be tolerated. It is also understood that in many cases the ethnographies, publications, and theories that the student will encounter are a product of specific historical and social contexts and therefore may contain sexist, androcentric, and even racist views. These issues will be considered and discussed as we explore the history of anthropological theory.

Email and Internet Resources

This course has a Brightspace webpage, containing email function, gradebook, lecture notes, and readings. Select notes will be posted after each week's lecture. These notes are not meant to be inclusive, but to aid the student in studying. Emails that ask questions of issues already addressed will not be answered.

Academic Fraud

Academic fraud is taken very seriously by the Faculty of Social Sciences and the University. It includes, for instance, plagiarism, cheating, submitting work that the student did not author, falsifying a reference, or submitting (without approval) work which has been produced for another course. All essays will be checked for the above instances of academic fraud. Programs such as ChatGTP are MOT
PERMITTED on ANY assignment.

Carleton University acknowledges the location of its campus on the traditional, unceded territories of the Algonquin nation. In doing so, Carleton acknowledges it has a responsibility to the Algonquin people and a responsibility to adhere to Algonquin cultural protocols.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar Regulations, the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

F = Below 50	WDN = With	drawn from the course	DEF = Deferred
A - = 80-84	B -= 70-72	C - = 60-62	D -= 50-52
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
A + = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C + = 67-69	D+ = 57-59

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university's website, here: https://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable).

*The deadline for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for June examinations is June 1, 2024, and August 1st, 2024, for August examinations.

For Religious Obligations:

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Pregnancy:

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: www.carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, which result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the passing off of someone else's work as your own and is a serious academic offence. For the details of what constitutes plagiarism, the potential penalties and the procedures refer to the section on Instructional Offences in the Undergraduate Calendar. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (See https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/). The Policy is strictly enforced and is binding on all students. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Students who infringe the Policy may be subject to one of several penalties.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism?

A student found to have plagiarized an assignment may be subject to one of several penalties including but not limited to: a grade of zero, a failure or a reduced grade for the piece of academic work; reduction of final grade in the course; completion of a remediation process; resubmission of academic work; withdrawal from course(s); suspension from a program of study; a letter of reprimand.

What are the Procedures?

All allegations of plagiarism are reported to the faculty of Dean of FASS and Management. Documentation is prepared by instructors and departmental chairs. The Dean writes to the student and the University Ombudsperson about the alleged plagiarism. The Dean reviews the allegation. If it is not resolved at this level then it is referred to a tribunal appointed by the Senate.
