SOCI 3210E/AFRI 3007H/HRSJ 3001A/WGST 3812B
RACE, GENDER, AND CLASS: INTERSECTIONALITY THROUGH THE ARTS

Instructor	TBA
Term	Winter 2025
Course Delivery	In Person
Email Address	TBA

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is a community engaged course which offers 3rd-year undergraduates a unique opportunity to work with Ottawa Catholic School Board (OCSB) high school students to address social oppression towards youth. Students will engage in critical discussions about race, gender, sexuality, class, and age in Canadian society guided by Intersectionality theory and the work of Augusto Boal. Near the end of the course, the students will be encouraged to advocate for better social outcomes for young people through artistic performances