

CARLETON UNIVERSITY - DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY - SOCI 2150 – A 2024 FALL

Instructor: Deborah Landry, PhD

Online Office Hours: By appointment (see link in Brightspace)

Email: deborahlandry@cunet.carleton.ca

Course meetings: Tuesdays @2:35 Check Carleton Central for Zoom Link

Course Delivery Method: Online Synchronous (no recordings will be made available)

Course Description and Objectives: Theoretical and empirical consideration of society and the individual. Topics include the public realm, situations, roles and interpersonal relations. Beliefs, attitudes, interests and opinions, leadership and decision making, conformity, coercion and compromise may be also examined.

Precludes additional credit for PSYC 2100.

Prerequisite(s): SOCI 1001 and SOCI 1002, or SOCI 1003 [1.0], or ANTH 1001, or ANTH 1002.

Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, students aim to

- ✓ Understand the dynamic relationship between the social self and structure
  - ✓ Analyze the vocabularies of motives available in everyday life
  - ✓ Critically reflect upon contemporary communication, policies and practices using social psychology
  - ✓ Develop skills in academic writing and reflection

Acknowledgement of Our Relations: Carleton University acknowledges the location of its campus on the traditional, unceded territories of the Algonquin nation. In doing so, Carleton acknowledges it has a responsibility to the Algonquin people and a responsibility to adhere to Algonquin cultural protocols.

I am a non-Indigenous treaty partner facilitating social sciences education on these lands. I am committed to ongoing education about decolonizing educational spaces and pedagogical practices. My pedagogy is informed by this belief and my treaty responsibilities to foster learning experiences aligned with First Peoples' protocols. I seek to fulfill my role in decolonization, social justice, and dignity for all. Let us critically consider our roles in the nation-to-nation relationship and the TRC's calls to action. This is an invitation to commit to unsettled sociology.

Required Readings:

All readings are available 'free' to learners through the library.

Readings are linked in our Brightspace Page: See "Reading & Assignment Schedule" Module

Late Submission Policy

To request an extension of 5 days or less:

- Contact the instructor as soon as it becomes clear you need an extension, but no later than 24 hours after the missed due date.
- Short term extensions are at the discretion of the instructor.

To request an extension of MORE than 5 days after a due date:

- No later than 24 hours after the missed due date, a formal request must be made through the registrar, with supporting documentation.
- Complete and submit this Request for Academic Consideration Form to the registrar:
<https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-consideration-coursework-form/>

E-Mail Policy: Emails are official university records and should be treated as such.

Class attendance is vital; email can't replace in-person learning

Before writing an email, Review the course outline, the FAQ module in Brightspace, and any rubrics, assignment guidelines, and feedback related to the submission or activity.

Now that you are ready to write your email, keep the following in mind:

- The teaching team can only reply to Carleton University email addresses.
- Professionalism: Avoid writing when you are upset; talk to a human instead, in-person (or Zoom).
- Conciseness: Keep emails short [100 words or less],
- Response Time: Allow 24-48 hours (Mon to Fri) for a reply.

Policy Regarding Content Generated by AI, such as ChatGPT, Co-Pilot, Gemini, etc.

While AI-generated technologies might seem like a quick fix, they are woefully misinformed about Social Psychology from a sociological perspective, and completely mis-informed about anti-colonial perspectives.

Trust me, their fever dream scenarios will tank your grade far worse than submitting a less-than-perfect but honest piece of work. So, put down the AI and pick up your pen (or keyboard) – your grades will thank you!

Concerns about Grades or Feedback:

We are here to support your skill growth and understanding. Meeting with us can provide valuable insights and help you improve in future assignments. We ask that you wait at least 24 hours after you receive a grade before emailing the teaching team.

Step 1: Review All Supporting Materials

- Before booking an appointment, thoroughly review the following:
  - Marking rubric
  - Feedback comments
  - Assignment guidelines & course outline (syllabus)

(See next page...)

Step 2: Identify the Correct Contact Person

- Look at the feedback you received.
- The person (usually the TA) who signed your feedback is the person you must contact first
- The instructor cannot meet with you until you first meet with your TA to ask for clarification.

Step 3: Send a short e-mail to the correct contact person to book an appointment

- Keep communication concise and under 100 words.
- Do not use email to explain why you disagree with a grade. These conversations are best in-person.
- Teaching Team keep 'business hours' and can not meet during evenings/weekends.

Step 4: Attend the Meeting =) We are here to help!

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university's website, here:

<https://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/> You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable).

*The deadline for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for October/November examinations is October 1, 2024 and November 15, 2024 for December examinations.

For Religious Obligations:

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Pregnancy:

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: www.carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

For Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: www.carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the passing off of someone else's work as your own and is a serious academic offence. For the details of what constitutes plagiarism, the potential penalties and the procedures refer to the section on Instructional Offences in the Undergraduate Calendar. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (See <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>). The Policy is strictly enforced and is binding on all students. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Students who infringe the Policy may be subject to one of several penalties.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism?

A student found to have plagiarized an assignment may be subject to one of several penalties including but not limited to: a grade of zero, a failure or a reduced grade for the piece of academic work; reduction of final grade in the course; completion of a remediation process; resubmission of academic work; withdrawal from course(s); suspension from a program of study; a letter of reprimand.

What are the Procedures?

All allegations of plagiarism are reported to the faculty of Dean of FASS and Management. Documentation is prepared by instructors and departmental chairs. The Dean writes to the student and the University Ombudsperson about the alleged plagiarism. The Dean reviews the allegation. If it is not resolved at this level then it is referred to a tribunal appointed by the Senate.

Important Information:

- Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).
- Students must always retain a hard copy of all work that is submitted.
- Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.
- Carleton University is committed to protecting the privacy of those who study or work here (currently and formerly). To that end, Carleton's Privacy Office seeks to encourage the implementation of the privacy provisions of Ontario's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA) within the university.
- In accordance with FIPPA, please ensure all communication with staff/faculty is via your Carleton email account. To get your Carleton Email you will need to activate your MyCarletonOne account through Carleton Central. Once you have activated your MyCarletonOne account, log into the MyCarleton Portal.
- Please note that you will be able to link your MyCarletonOne account to other non-MyCarletonOne accounts and receive emails from us. However, for us to respond to your emails, we need to see your full name, CU ID, and the email must be written from your valid MyCarletonOne address. Therefore, it would be easier to respond to your inquiries if you would send all email from your connect account.
