

SOCI 2020A [ANTH 2020 A] STUDIES IN RACE AND ETHNICITY

Instructor	Amina Mire
Term	Fall 2024
Course Delivery	In person (in-class) only
Email Address	amina.mire@carleton.ca

COURSE DESCRIPTION

To provide inclusive, accessible, informative, interdisciplinary and relevant literature that focuses on foundations understanding and contemporary implications race, ethnicity, racial formations their political, social, economic and epistemological implications. The course also aims to build and enhance students' written and oral communications skills by actively engaging learners through assigned material, tutorial sessions and active in class open discussions.

EVALUATION

Three Reading Reflections: 60%. of final grades. Each reading reflection is based on selecting two concepts from materials covered in 3 lectures (3 weeks= 6 concepts). Each reflection, which based on questions selected from three weeks reading material, is worth 20% of the final grades. Each reflection should not exceed six pages- double spaced- including references and can be uploaded as a document via Brightspace. The rationale for assignment format is give learners opportunity to develop and enhance their writing and reading skills as well as giving them the chance to familiar complex ideas.

Final Research Essay: Original research paper comprising of 12-14 pages [double-spaced plus references]. 40% of the final grade.

TEXT

Uses journal articles, videos and book chapter. All assigned course material will be available to learners at Ares/Brightspace course homepage.