

SOCI 4020A / ANTH 4020A: ADVANCED STUDIES IN RACE AND ETHNICITY

Instructor	Amina Mire
Term	Fall 2024
Course Delivery	In person (in-class) only
Email Address	amina.mire@carleton.ca

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This seminar provides advanced level understanding about studies of race, ethnicities, racialization, and settler colonialism in contemporary context. The seminar also aims at enhancing learners' written and oral communication skills.

EVALUATION

Literature Review: 20% (8-10 pages double spaced). In-class presentations of the proposals for the final essays: 20%. (10 minutes maximum per person). First draft of the final essay 15% (14-16 pages double spaced). Final draft of the final essay 45% (16-18 pages double spaced).

TEXT

Required readings for this seminar are journal articles, book chapters, feature films, short videos and newspaper articles, which are electrically accessible via the Brightspace course homepage under ARES Reserves icon.