

The Shirley Judge Bursary

Please note that the deadline for the Shirley Judge Bursary is October 31st.

Awarded annually, (this year worth $1700.) on the recommendation of the Bachelor of Social Work and Master of Social Work Practicum Coordinators, to an undergraduate or graduate student entering the practicum in the Bachelor of Social Work or Master of Social Work at Carleton University. Recipients will have demonstrated financial need, must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada (landed immigrants or protected persons), and must meet OSAP's Ontario residency requirements. Should the recipient be a graduate student, the bursary will be awarded by the Dean of Graduate Studies and Research. Endowed in 2007 by family and friends, in honour of Shirley Judge.

Students must complete the Carleton Bursary Application (attached) and submit a letter outlining the reasons for applying. The award will be granted to the most outstanding student whose work or future work will contribute to Shirley's legacy. Shirley was committed to anti-discriminatory practice particularly to improving the lives of women.

Letters should be handed in to Maggie Lodge in room 509 DT or electronically at maggie.lodge@carleton.ca
