Computer Science Award Information (2020-2021)

About the Award
- Two (2) TA awards are available to be won by TAs from the School of Computer Science.
- Each award is valued at $100 and includes a commendation letter and formal recognition on a plaque kept in the School of Computer Science.

Nomination Process

Who is eligible?
- Only those TAs that have been assigned to a course (Fall 2020 – Winter 2021) are eligible for the Outstanding TA Award.

Who should submit the nomination form/package?
- Faculty, contract instructors and students are welcome to nominate their TA(s).
- TAs may nominate themselves for the award but self-nominations that have meaningful support from faculty, contract instructors or students in the course will be given more weight.
- Faculty nominations will be weighted more significantly than other non-faculty nominated submissions.
- Submissions that provide meaningful support will be weighted more significantly than non-specific compliments.
- Yes, but submitted content should include a description of the context (i.e., why is it included, what impact did the content have, etc.)

Where and when to submit?
- Nominators are asked to complete the digital ‘2020-2021 Outstanding TA Awards’ (available through the EDC's 'TA Support' website here), and attach any additional documentation using this online form.
- The deadline to submit is March 9, 2021, 11:30 pm.

Selection Process
- The committee consists of the Associate Director (undergraduate) and the Lab Coordinators.
- The committee considers all ways in which TAs improve or contribute to learning within the School of Computer Science.
- The winner(s) will be notified in early April.
