

TLS

BY THE NUMBERS

2023-2024

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

1,120

INSTRUCTORS ENGAGED WITH TLS

1,797

TAS ATTENDED PEDAGOGICAL WORKSHOPS

104

EDUCATIONAL WORKSHOPS HOSTED

TLS continues to support the professional development of Carleton's teaching community. In all, over 1,120 instructors engaged with TLS staff during 2023-2024 for pedagogical support and communities of practices.

MULTIMEDIA & ED TECH SUPPORT

37,351

NEW TEACHING & LEARNING VIDEOS CREATED

3,831

CLASSROOM SUPPORT & ORIENTATION REQUESTS

4,471

REQUESTS FOR HELP WITH EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY TOOLS

498

UNIVERSITY-WIDE EVENTS SUPPORTED

We offer a variety of events, workshops, and programs to support the needs of Carleton's teaching and learning community. From pedagogy to educational technology and everything in between.

DIGITAL LEARNING

5,770

EON XR ACCOUNTS CREATED

293

CREATIVE & MEDIA COMMONS SUITES BOOKINGS IN EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING HUB

The Experiential Learning Hub (ELH) at Carleton is a dedicated space for students and instructors to engage and experiment with emerging immersive technologies, such as extended reality (XR) headsets, immersive learning experiences, 3D scanning, and tools for XR development.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

209

NEW SAPP & I-CUREUS PROJECTS

9,487

STUDENTS ENGAGED WITH COLLABORATIVE INDIGENOUS BUNDLES

537

STUDENTS PARTICIPATED IN FUSION

The Future Learning Lab on the 4th Floor of the MacOdrum Library facilitates collaboration between instructors and students for innovative teaching and learning. It encourages student-centred approaches, provides space for undergraduate research, promotes pedagogical innovation, and offers enhanced study spaces for individuals and groups.

TEACHING AND LEARNING SERVICES

✉ tls@carleton.ca 🌐 Carleton.ca/tls ✂ CU_Teaching 📷 carletonlearninglab