Job Posting: Contract Instructor TSES 4014 Technology-Society:
Time

Course Description

TSES 4014 [0.5 credit]

Technology-Society: Time
Time is a universal human experience, but it presents some profound mysteries. It governs our behaviour on personal, societal and cultural levels. This course will bring together experts from physics, sociology, philosophy, biology, literature and psychology to illuminate our understanding.
Prerequisite(s): third-year standing or equivalent.
Lectures three hours a week.

Qualifications

- Strong background in physics and knowledge of time concepts
- Experience in multidisciplinary teaching, in particular teaching classes made up of students from all the faculties who have a wide range of literacy and numeracy skills
- Enthusiasm for the broad view of the TSES program

Procedure for Application

(From the Collective Agreement CUPE 4600 Unit 2) 15.3 All applicants must apply to the Department Head in writing and in relation to each course for which they wish to be considered.
