

17th ANNUAL UNDERHILL GRADUATE STUDENT COLLOQUIUM SCHEDULE

THURSDAY, MARCH 3rd

REGISTRATION

8:00 – 8:30

OPENING REMARKS

Dr. Dominique Marshall, Supervisor of Graduate Studies

8:30 – 8:35

PA 433

THINGS TO SELL, THINGS TO CONSUME

Presenter:

Panel Chair:

Time:

Rm. #

Cheroots and Hubble-Bubbles: Tobacco Consumption in British Fictions of India

David Wielusiewicz
Carleton University
(History)

Sara Spike

8:35 – 10:10

PA 433

The Sweetest Sounds: Buying and Selling Musical Instruments in Southern Ontario, 1880-1920

Madelaine Morrison
Carleton University
(History)

Organized Sports: The History of the NHL Hockey Organ

Antonio Giamberardino
Carleton University
(Music and Culture)

Marketing the Reproductive Engraving in Late Eighteenth-Century Paris: The Commercial Ploys of Jean-Baptiste Greuze

Kathryn Desplanque
Carleton University
(Art History)

NUTRITION BREAK

10:10 – 10:25

THE FASHIONING OF THE SELF

Presenter:

Panel Chair:

Time:

Rm. #

Desiring a Position: Emotion, the Self, and the Victorian Canadian State

David Banoub
Carleton University
(History)

Gillian Gibson

10:25 – 11:55

PA 433

Materializing Masculinity: Mediumship and the Tension of Gender in the Séance Room (1926-1939)

Beth Robertson
Carleton University
(History)

“That Oppressive Institution”: Come Out! and the Sexual Politics of New York’s Gay Liberation Front, 1969-1972

Mathieu Brûlé
York University
(History)

READING AND WRITING THEIR WORLDS

Presenter:

Panel Chair:

Time:

Rm. #

A (re)View to the Atlantic World: Phillis Wheatley

Andrew Maginn
North Carolina Central University
(History)

Jonathan
Greenwood

10:25 – 11:55

PA 436

Ben E. Ferrichs, Armchair Backwoodsman

Brett Davidson
Carleton University
(History)

Humanity in the Face of War: Irène Némirovsky’s Depiction of the Parisian Exodus of June 1940 in Her Novel Storm in June (1942)

Lydia Bryce
University of Guelph
(French Studies)

LUNCHEON ADDRESS – “Border Stories: The Forty-Ninth Parallel and Plains Métis History”

Dr. Michel Hogue

Department of History
Carleton University

12:00 – 1:20

PA 433

POPULAR REPRESENTATIONS OF WAR	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
Art, War Record, or Propaganda? The Second World War Paintings of Carl Schaefer, RCAF	Rob Coles Concordia University (Art History)	Jane Freeland	1:30 – 3:00	PA 433
Representing the Environment in the Canadian War Museum	Kaitlin Wainwright Carleton University (History)
In the Grim Dark Future There Is Only War!: Problematizing the Morality of War Itself in the Science Fiction Fantasy Table Top War Game, 'Warhammer 40 000'	William Hamilton Concordia University (History)
ASIAN MISSIONS	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
Great Expectations: Post-Millennialism and the American Missionary Enterprise in the Ottoman Empire in the Early Nineteenth Century	Justin Dell Wilfrid Laurier University (History)	Beth Robertson	1:30 – 3:00	PA 436
From the Sidelines of Empire: Canada's Presbyterian Mission to Interwar Korea	William Tait Saint Mary's University (History)
Spreading the Word: The Mission of the Université Aurore in Shanghai, 1903-1918	Alexander Major Université de Sherbrooke (History)

NUTRITION BREAK 3:00 – 3:15

THE POLITICS OF EXPERIENCE	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
The Phenomenological Movement and Historical Theory: Reflections on the Use of 'Experience' in Historical Practice	Emmanuel Hogg Carleton University (History)	Kaitlin Wainwright	3:15 – 5:00	PA 433
The Power of the Printed Word: Sensationalism and Social Reform	Margaret Summerfield Carleton University (EURUS)
Communist Kitsch: Negotiating Memory and Reconstructing the GDR in Post-Wende Literature	Sean Eedy Carleton University (History)
MIGRATION AND MOBILITY	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
Not Here by Choice: Canada's Importation of Child Labourers	Lori Jones University of Ottawa (History)	Madelaine Morrison	3:15 – 4:45	PA 436
The History of Chinese Labour Mobility: Continuity and Change	Ian Cooper Carleton University (Sociology)
Irish in the Empire: A Study in Group Consciousness	Mike McLaughlin Carleton University (History)

17th ANNUAL UNDERHILL GRADUATE STUDENT COLLOQUIUM SCHEDULE

FRIDAY, MARCH 4th

LABOUR ACROSS THE WORLD	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
"An Unwholesome Kind of Independence": The African Working Class in Natal, 1840-1904	Erin Bell Carleton University (History)	Emily Gann	9:00 – 10:30	PA 433
"If You Have to Work for a Living, You Must be Working Class": The Unionization of Faculty and Staff at Carleton University, 1974-1976	Martha Attridge Bufton Carleton University (History)
Locating Culture: Colonial Mimicry, Gospel Solidarity, and String-Band Songs as Presented by ni-Vanuatu Seasonal Labour in Central Otago	Naomi Calnitsky Carleton University (History)

POLITICIZED RESOURCES	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
The Biopolitics of Human Nutrition: A Genealogy of the USDA Food Guide	James Braun Carleton University (Political Economy)	Jessica Dunkin	9:00 – 10:30	PA 436
The Discourse of Transition: Nationalism, Geopolitics, and Technological Change in the Royal Navy's Use of Fuels, 1919-1939	Ian Wereley Carleton University (History)
What's in a Name? Historicizing Alberta's Bituminous Sands	Ryan Katz-Rosene Carleton University (Geography)

NUTRITION BREAK	10:30 – 10:45
------------------------	---------------

SITES OF MEMORY	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #:
Straight History: Missing Interpretation of Homosexuality in American Historic Homes and Sites	Jennifer Scott University of North Carolina Wilmington (Public History)	Angela Beking	10:45 – 12:15	PA 433
A Little More Fibre Needed for the Bran(t) Memorial: Representations of Joseph Brant in the Valiants Memorial	Danielle Lorenz Carleton University (Canadian Studies)
Visiting Sachsenhausen: Dark Tourism in the Age of YouTube	Erica Fagen Carleton University (History)

WHO RULES CANADA?	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #:
Idola Saint-Jean and the Radicalism of Alliance canadienne pour le vote des femmes du Québec	Sarah Spear Carleton University (Canadian Studies)	Martha Attridge Bufton	10:45 – 12:15	PA 436
The Republic of Canada: Recovering John S. Ewart's Republican Idea of Canada	Peter Price Queen's University (History)
Canadian Courts in Times of Crisis: Judicial Deference, Rule of Law and the Normalization of Emergency Power in Peacetimes, 1945-71	Darren Pacione Carleton University (Legal Studies)

LUNCH

12:15 – 1:20

CREATING NATIONAL IDENTITIES
	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
Constructing National Identity and the 'Other': Manifestations of American Orientalism in the Nineteenth Century	Erin Macnab Carleton University (Art History)	David Banoub	1:30 – 3:00	PA 433
Remembrance of Things Past: Banknotes and Hispanidad in the Estado Español, 1940-1947	Jonathan Greenwood Carleton University (History)
Germany vs. Europe: The Autobahn, European Integration and National Identity in Post-War West Germany	Peter Schalk University Of Ottawa (History)
PARTISAN POLITICS
	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
Aboriginals and the Left: CPC and CCF Responses to Aboriginal Politics, 1920-1950	Sara McCleary Queen's University (History)	Nicolina Baccari	1:30 – 3:00	PA 436
Rise Up, Frémont! The Republican Party and the 1856 Presidential Election in Maryland	Stuart MacKay Carleton University (History)
"A Clear and Abiding Line between Conservative and Liberal at Ottawa": The Protective Tariff, the Dominion Election of 1911, and the Search for a Modern Political Imaginary	David Tough Carleton University (History)

NUTRITION BREAK

3:00 – 3:15

RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS, STATE POLICIES, AND THEIR CONSEQUENCES
	Presenter:	Panel Chair:	Time:	Rm. #
Audiatur et Altera Pars	Attila Takács Eszterházy Károly College (American Studies)	Naomi Calnitsky	3:15 – 4:45	PA 433
The Policy of Hegemonic Structures in Aboriginal Country and the Paradox of Altruism and Fear	Cynthia Stirbys University of Ottawa (Women's Studies)

KEYNOTE ADDRESS
	Keynote Speaker:	Introduction:	Time:	Rm. #
From Residential School to Foster Home: Child Welfare? 1940-1980	Dr. John Milloy Department of Canadian Studies Trent University	David Tough	7:00 pm	PA 303