

Thursday, March 7

8:45-9:00 Opening Remarks. Dr. James Miller, Chair of the Department of History, Carleton University.. History Department Foyer Fourth Floor Paterson Hall.

9:00-10:30

Session One: Storytelling, Fiction and the Historian's Craft. PA 436

1. Tonya Di Ilio, Carleton University (English Literature). "I will not allow books to prove any thing [sic]": The Authority of the Female Historian in Jane Austen's Persuasion."
2. Yann Geoffroy, Concordia University (English Literature and Creative Writing). "Tides, Tales and Love: Storytelling in Amitav Ghosh's The Hungry Tide."
3. Pooriya Alimoradi, Concordia University (History and Philosophy of Religion). "Indo-Iranian Heroes, Comparing Bhīṣma and Rostam in Mahābhārata and Shāhnāmeḥ."
4. Bailey Seybolt, Concordia University (English Literature and Creative Writing). "(Re)writing History: Legal Language and Historical Documents in Canadian Fiction."

Panel Chair Christina Parsons, Carleton University

Session Two: Negotiating Architecture & Urban Landscapes. History Lounge PA 433

5. Chelsea Grant, University of Manitoba (Architecture). "The Modern Maenad: The Dionysian, The Collective and the City."
6. Dorothy-Jane Smith, Carleton University (History). "Cathedrals of Memory: Space and Class in Two Ontario Community Mausoleums, 1917 to 1931."
7. Arpita Bajpeyi, Carleton University (Public History). "Postcolonial Memories: Accra, Urban Space, and the Colonial Past."

Panel Chair Sinead Cox, Carleton University.

10:30-10:45 Break History Department Foyer Fourth Floor Paterson Hall.

10:45-12:15

Session Three: Perceptions of Health and Disease. PA 436

8. Sarah Doerksen, Carleton University (History). "Conceptualizing Schizophrenia: Perspectives of Patients."
9. Lauren Markewicz, Carleton University (History). "The Art of Medical Photography: The Influence of Contemporary Portraiture in Photographs of American Civil War Veterans."

10. Lise Kunau, University of Windsor (History). "Increasing Visibility: Breast Cancer in Toronto's Popular Culture in the 1970s."

Panel Chair: Sanna Guerin, Carleton University.

Session Four: Markets, Money, and Mobility. History Lounge PA 433.

11. Ian Wereley, Carleton University (History). "Modernity, Nationalism, and The British Anti-Oil Movement, 1927-1938."

12. Slawomira Hastedt, Western University (Arts and Humanities). "The Mesoamerican Marketplace: Mercantile Mobility in Guatemala in the twentieth century."

13. Sarah Rowlands, Brock University (History). "Gorgons and Turtles: Form and Functionality of Early Greek Coinage."

Panel Chair, Bruce Rayfuse, Carleton University.

12:15-1:15 Luncheon Lecture. History Lounge

Dr. Shawn Graham, Department of History, Carleton University. "Living the Life Electric: On Becoming a Digital Humanist."

1:15-2:45

Session Five: Images and Representations of the Canadian North. History Lounge PA 433.

14. Kristoffer Archibald, Concordia University (History). "Making Polar Bears Vulnerable: Representations of Wild Polar Bears in the Cold War Era."

15. Mitchell Patterson, Queen's University (History). "The Canadian Arctic and the Rangers: Northern Narratives and Military Roles."

16. Michelle Bauldic, Carleton University (Canadian Studies) "A Short-Lived Romance: Ookpik and the Canadian Federal Government."

Panel Chair: Will Tait, Carleton University.

Session Six: Perspectives in the Nation-Building Process. PA 436

17. Jane Freeland, Carleton University (History). "Learning Liberalism; Learning Feminism?: Domestic Violence Discourses in West Germany."

18. Tom Rorke, Pennsylvania State University (History). "Nordicity, National Games and (In)visible Indians: The Rise and Fall of Lacrosse as a National Pastime in Canada, 1864-1913."

19. Noel Z Gondek, Carleton University (Law and Legal Studies) “A Brotherhood of Builders: Legal History and Freemasonry in the Dominion of Canada.”

Chair: Marie-Anne Gagnon, Carleton University

2:45-3:00 Break

3:00-5:00

Session Seven: Migration, Identity, Citizenship Workshop PA 436

20. Lina Crompton, Carleton University (Public History). “The Ideal Immigrant: The National Film Board of Canada and Nation Building, 1951-1961.”

21. Sunju Yoon, University of Victoria (Political Science). “Different Integration Patterns Between Two Major Immigrants, Chinese and South Asians, in Greater Vancouver: According to History in Asian Immigration.”

Chair: Lee Benson, Carleton University.

Session Eight: Public History Workshop History Lounge PA 433.

22. Trina De Souza, York University (Gender, Feminist and Women's Studies). “Remembering Black Creek Pioneer Village: Colonialism, Haunting, and Canadian National Identity.”

23. Anna Kuntz, Carleton University (History) “‘An Icon of our Culture:’ Inclusion and Exhibition at Blackfoot Crossing Historical Park.”

24. Sanna Guerin, Carleton University (History) “‘A Memorial is Reared Over Us’: Understanding the Women's Shrine at the Imperial War Museum, 1920-1924.”

Chair Meghan Lundrigan, Carleton University.

Following these last panels, we will meet in the History Department Foyer and make our way to explore some of downtown Ottawa! We will head to the Nature Museum located at 240 McLeod Street. Following the museum, we will gather at the Lieutenant's Pump Pub at 7:30. We encourage all to attend, especially those out-of-towners! The Nature Museum does not charge admission, but the pub night will be pay your own way.

Friday March 8

9:00-10:30

Session Nine: Media, Popular Culture and Social Change. PA 436

25. David Gallant, University of Calgary (History). "Grim Determination": Canadian Reactions to the Outbreak of the First World War, July-August 1914."

26. Emmanuel Hogg, Carleton University (History). "From Spectators, Supporters and Real Fans to Rowdies, Hooligans, and Ultras: Representations of Football Fandom in Postwar Germany."

27. Tom Sutton, University of New Brunswick (History). "Children's Television and Social Change in 'The Long 60s.'"

Chair: Guy Massie, Carleton University.

Session Ten: From the Farm to the Table: Understanding What We Eat and Why. History Lounge PA 433.

28. Lisalou Martone, University of Ottawa (History). "The French livestock industry 'à l'heure anglaise': The Durham phase in the Rhone, 1850-1870."

29. Christopher Chaban, Concordia University (English Literature). "Nostalgia and Authority in Barbara Kingsolver's Animal, Vegetable, Miracle."

30. Marie-Anne Gagnon, Carleton University (History). "'Cooking Up Canada': Cultural Pluralism and the Rise of the 'Canadian Cookbook' (1945-1967)."

Chair: Brennan McConnell, Carleton University.

10:30-10:45 Break History Department Foyer Fourth Floor Paterson Hall.

10:45-12:15

Session Eleven: Ideas about Men and Women in Practice. History Lounge PA 433.

31. Evan Suntres, University of Windsor (History). "The Muscle Car Phenomenon: Combating the Crisis of Masculinity."

32. Guy Massie, Carleton University (History). "Gun-Toting Paleontology: Roy Chapman Andrews and the Masculine Quest for Human Origins."

33. Krista Kermer, University of Windsor (History). "The College Girl: Feminine Identity and Sexualizing Consumer Culture 1920-1929"

Chair: Nick Hrynyk, Carleton University

Session Twelve: Theoretical Issues in Historiographical Scholarship. PA 436

34. Alexander Liepins, University of Ottawa (Philosophy). “The Ethics of Historical Objectivity: Paul Ricoeur on the Historian's Craft.”

35. Jared Babin, University of Ottawa (Philosophy). “The Aristotelian Roots of Hegel's Philosophy of History: Dunamis, Possibility, and Necessity.”

36. Zachary Fouchard, Carleton University (Philosophy). “At the Intersection Between History and Ethics: Michel Foucault’s Critical Historicism.”

37. Mitchell Johnson, University of Alberta (English and Film Studies). “(Literary) History in Motion: The Recent History of Close Reading.”

Chair: Emmanuel Hogg, Carleton University.

12:15-1:00 Lunch History Department Foyer Fourth Floor Paterson Hall.

1:00-2:30

Session Thirteen: Colonialism? Anti-colonialism? Post-colonialism? History Lounge PA 433.

38. Ian Saxine, Northwestern University (History). “Foul Deeds? War Refugees and Land Speculators in Frontier Maine, 1713-1735”

39. Deanne LeBlanc, University of Victoria (Political Science). “Confronting Histories of Exceptionalization: Applying Agamben to Indigenous-Settler Relations in Upper Canada (1763-1857).”

40. Sara dos Santos, Carleton University (History). “In a Way, our Battle is Won': Anti-Colonial Narrative, Aboriginal Documentary Film and the 'Oka Crisis.’”

Chair: Arpita Bajpeyi, Carleton University

Session Fourteen: The Individual in the Community? The Community in the Individual? Concepts in the Study of Community in Historical Perspective. PA 436

41. Sinead Cox, Carleton University (Public History). “Community Property: Donation and Community Identity in the Local Southwestern Ontario Museum.”

42. Nelson Marques, York University (History). “Lost in the Mix: Confession, Co-existence, and the Search for the Self in Early Modern France.”

Chair: Quinn Lanzon, Carleton University.

2:30-2:45 Break History Department Foyer Fourth Floor Paterson Hall.

2:45-4:30

Session Fifteen: The State of the Art: #Digital Humanities. History Lounge PA 433.

43. Rebecca Murray, Carleton University (Canadian Studies). “The Role of the Historical Narrator on Twitter.”

44. Meghan Lundrigan, Carleton University (Public History). ‘Broadcast YourHate: Navigating YouTube as a Space of Remembrance and Doubt.’

Chair: Sara Spike, Carleton University.

Session Sixteen: The State of the Art: Archives, Museums, Colonial Records and the Ethics of Displaying the Past PA 436

45. Alisha Seguin, Carleton University (History). “Material History, Ojibwa Spirituality and the Ethics of Display.”

46. Christina Parsons, Carleton University (History). “Judith Butler in the Museum: The Construction of the Ideal of National Identity.”

47. Heather Majaury, University of Guelph (English and Theatre Arts). “Paper Wars: Oral History Versus Colonial Written Records When Determining Algonquin Identity.”

Chair: Lina Crompton, Carleton University.

4:30-5:00 Closing Remarks. History Department Foyer Fourth Floor Paterson Hall.

6:30-7:00 Pre-keynote reception. History Department Foyer Fourth Floor Paterson Hall.

7:00-8:30 Keynote Lecture. PA 303.

Dr. William Turkel Department of History Western University. “Doing History in Real Time.”

Saturday March 9

10:30-12:30.

Session Seventeen: Digital History Workshop PA 436

Dr. William Turkel, Western University