Contract Instructor Opportunities for Winter 2019

Applications are invited from Feminist Scholars who are members of the CUPE 4600 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the following Women’s & Gender Studies course during the Fall 2018 academic term. Applicants should have a Ph.D. in Women’s and Gender Studies or a related discipline and have expertise (research/education/work background) in the specific course topic.

For all courses, we are asking applicants to submit their CVs, previous teaching scores, a statement of feminist scholarship, and a two-page outline of key topics, key theoretical and/or substantive sources that frame the course. We expect that textbooks would only be used at the 1st and 2nd year level and that upper level courses would be more reliant on collected readings/journal articles.

- SXST 3103A (.5 credit)

Sexuality and Disability
Exploration of ways that embodied categories of sex and gender, as well as desire are mediated through mainstream and alternative discourses of disability. Topics may include: crip theory, mental health issues, and LGBTQ sexualities.

- WGST 4812A/ WGST 5902A (.5 credit)

Sexual Violence on Campus
Exploration of the escalating crisis of gender and sexual violence on campus, as well as resistance strategies. Topics may include: intersectionality, “rape culture”, critical masculinity studies, LGBTQ oppression, women/queer of color feminisms.

Please send applications by October 12, 2018, 12:00pm.
