Pursuant to Articles 15 to 18 of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, and subject to both budgetary and administrative approvals, applications are invited from members of the CUPE 4600-2 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the following Women’s and Gender Studies course(s) during the Fall 2020 and Winter 2021 terms.

Please note:
(a) All positions are subject to budgetary approval. Advertisement is not a guarantee that a course will be offered. The University reserves the right to cancel any courses with insufficient registration.
(b) The University may require that all or part of this course be delivered remotely, including online.

A note to all applicants: As per Articles 16.3 and 16.4 in the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, the posted vacancies listed below are first offered to applicants meeting the incumbency criterion. A link to the current CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement can be found at the Employment Agreements webpage on the Carleton University Human Resources website https://carleton.ca/hr/labour-relations/academic-staff-agreements/, and the CUPE 4600-2 website: https://www.cupe4600.ca/unit-2

WINTER TERM 2021

DBST 2001 (.5 credit)
Disabling Society
Interdisciplinary approach to the debates and theories that challenge the normative values, knowledge sources, and cultural representations of disablement in society.
Prerequisite(s): second-year standing and DBST 1001.
Lecture and discussion three hours a week. Lecture currently scheduled for Mondays 2:30pm with discussion groups on Tuesdays at 2:30 pm and 3:30pm (subject to change).

Required Academic Qualifications and Skills: Candidates must ideally hold a Ph.D. in Women’s and Gender Studies or a related social science and/or humanities discipline and must be able to demonstrate research and teaching expertise in intersectional approaches to gender, sexuality, critical race theory, and disability studies. Applicants should also have expertise (research/education/work experience) in the specific course topic.

Application Procedures and Deadlines
All applicants must apply to the Director of the Institute of Women’s and Gender Studies in writing by Monday June 15, 2020.
Email application to the attention of Dr. Ann Cvetkovich at lana.keon@carleton.ca

Please assemble documents in the following order: cover letter, C.V. with names of three references, teaching evaluations. We are not able to accept applications via mail or hard copy due to covid-19 restrictions; if this presents a problem, please contact us.

As per Article 15.3 of the current CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applicants are required to submit an up to date C.V., including a complete listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University. Candidates are also asked to complete a “Contract Instructor Application Form” available at http://carleton.ca/provost/wp-content/uploads/CI-Application-FINAL.pdf.

Candidates who have already contacted the department and submitted a CV recently need only indicate their interest in particular courses. NOTE that when applying to classes for which they have incumbency, applicants shall not be required to (re)submit documentation beyond their updated CV.

Carleton University is strongly committed to fostering diversity within its community as a source of excellence, cultural enrichment and social strength. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our University including but not limited to women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity.
